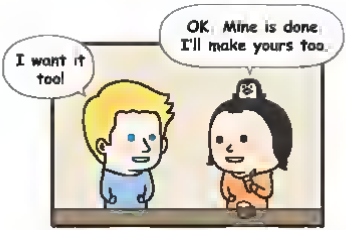
Cinnamon Powder

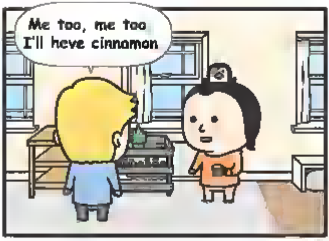
My favourite coffee is a cappuccino.

Especially when there is some cinnamon powder on top.

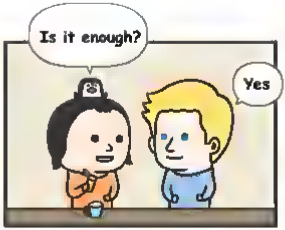
Since we got a coffee machine at home, I can enjoy this better than before.

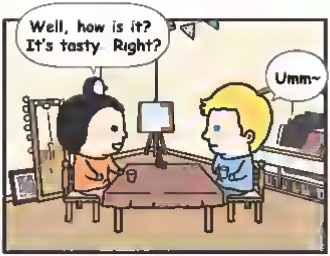


One day,
I was making a cup of coffee.

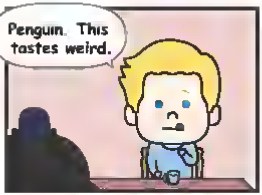


Mev asked me to give him some cinnamon too.

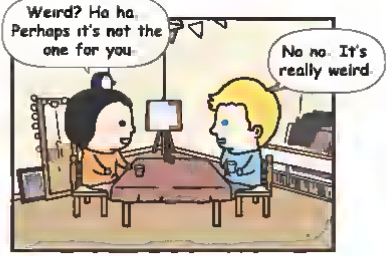


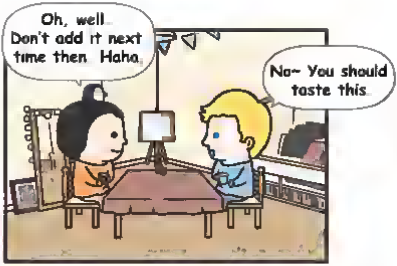


Then we drank the coffee together

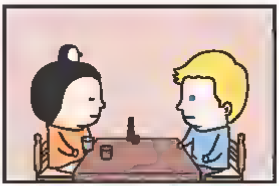


Mev's response wasn't very good.

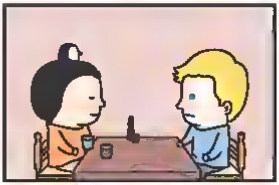




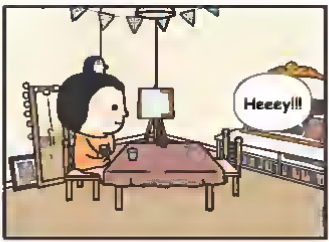
So I tried his coffee.



Umm...



Ummmm....



That day,
Mev had a ginger coffee.

*Really

He was happy with the rhyme.

Hehehe...
